Laurie understands our industry very well, bringing with her substantial experience on both the customer and insurer sides as well as deep technology expertise. Nigel's experience across Lloyd's and general insurance, his ability to manage a variety of stakeholders and regulators, and understanding of private equity ownership will be a great asset to Canopius. Together they bring excellent strength and breadth to our team."

Laurie Davison commented, "It is an exciting time to be joining Canopius. I am impressed by the ambition and strategy of the group and I look forward to being part of the leadership team that moves the business forward, pulling together the different operational strands and ensuring we provide the best service possible to our brokers and clients."

Nigel Meyer said, "With Canopius moving into a new era of private ownership and against the market trend of consolidation, it has an extraordinary opportunity to build on its position as a top ten Lloyd's insurer. I am looking forward to being part of that growth."
