CANOPIUS EXPANDS US MANAGEMENT & PROFESSIONAL LINES

Canopius today announces the appointment of William P. Kelly ('Bill') as Senior Vice President in the US Management & Professional Lines team. Bill is based in the New York office and reports to Laurie Banez, Head of US Management & Professional Lines.

Reflecting the group's commitment to this sector and responding to the risk management needs of mid sized to large commercial and financial institution risks, Canopius is building a diverse profitable platform of US management and professional lines. The team currently offers excess pact, private pact and executive pact products, which will be available countrywide on both an admitted and non admitted basis.

Laurie Banez commented, "Bill is widely respected by brokers and clients and has a diverse background of management and professional lines experience. As we expand our offering in the US, we continue to focus on doing so in the right way and with the right people, so I am delighted to welcome Bill to the team and I look forward to adding more top talent and introducing new products and services throughout 2018."
