11 July 2019

CANOPIUS CONTINUES APAC EXPANSION WITH SINGAPORE HIRE

Canopus today announces the appointment of Jamie Jeffers as underwriter, credit & political risk, Canopus Asia Pacific, effective September 9th.

Jeffers will join from Willis Towers Watson, where he served as executive director, financial solutions – credit and political risk. Based in Singapore, he will report to Yann Marmonier, head of insurance, Asia Pacific & MENA, and Bernie de Haldevang, head of specialty, in London. Previously he was head of insurance – financial institutions for Westpac in Sydney, and before that he was a financial credit analyst for AIB in Dublin.

Jeffers will support the company's ambition to expand in the Asia Pacific region by targeting bank and corporate business.

Yann said: "Jamie brings the balance of skills essential for Canopus to capitalise on the significant credit and political risks opportunities emanating from the region. His appointment signifies the importance of CPRl to Canopus in its continuing expansion across the Asia Pacific and it gives me great pleasure to welcome Jamie to the team."
